New Projects at Caron.com

One look at Kim Guzman's Simple Tunic —crocheted in Simply Soft and trimmed with Simply Soft Brites —and you'll agree that the welcome return of the tunic doesn't mean baggy, shapeless garments. Instead, it's a beautiful exercise in shaping and colorwork.

For our knitters, we have a wonderful Cropped Hoodie Vest that can be layered with ease. Stitched in subtle, self-striping Simply Soft Shadows, and finished with a front zipper, this vest is a quick, fun project.

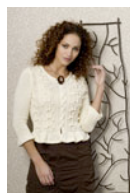

Congratulate our first winner!

Evelyn E. of Glendale, NY will receive 6 skeins of NaturallyCaron.com Spa yarn as our first winner in the "Caron Connections Subscriber Appreciation Sweepstakes". You could be next!

We have had so many compliments on Kim Rutledge's Chakra Purse, that we know you'll love her matching Chakra Scarf. Sprinkled with "love notes" in filet crochet, this Spa creation is a perfect way to show your love for someone special.

Many among us are delighted with the return of the tunic. Flattering for so many body types, this elongated shape looks great over jeans or slacks. Susan Shildmyer's London Tunic is a cabled version that features a sweet little pocket. Knit in Country.
