We are always on the lookout for patterns like this one that are perfect to slip on over just about anything. The Allegra Jacket, designed by Margret Willson, is a simple side-to-side knit that features an open cardigan style and 3/4 sleeves that fit and flatter just about anyone. Stitched in easy-care, bamboo-blend Spa, the Allegra Jacket will provide light warmth while keeping its shape, drape and sheen for many seasons to come.

Tammy Hildebrand is a favorite designer for many of you, and she's a favorite here at Caron, too. Her designs always seem practical and stylish, but with a twist. Her Dublin Throw is no exception. The throw consists of very portable strips that are stitched in one of three different crochet stitches, adding textural interest in the finished throw, but also creative interest for you. Created in merino-blend, machine-washable Country, the color selections are deep and rich and harmonize beautifully.
