If you have ever been lucky enough to spend any time at the seaside, you'll surely have visions of blue ocean and frothy waves dancing in your head. Now you can capture a little bit of that beautiful seascape with our Spirals Throw. But don't be fooled by the sophisticated design;

even though this gorgeous project looks like something you might find in a high-priced boutique, our value-priced One Pound yarn makes it very economical. Crocheted in separate swirl motifs, the Spirals Throw makes a great travel project. Take it along on your "staycations" this summer and then assemble it once the temperatures start to cool down. It will be a beautiful reminder of a lovely—and creative!—summer.

lace is definitely in. It's feminine, flirty and makes everyone look and feel good. So pick up your crochet hook and a few skeins of Spa yarn and get started on Kristin Omdahl's exquisite Deerfield Vest. The beauty of this vest is that it will fit and flatter all year long. The wide collar and loose styling look great paired with a summer tee, a fall sweater or even belted for the office.

We have a particular fondness for patterns that can be used more than one way. And if they are as gorgeous as the Santa Barbara Wrap designed by Marilyn Losee, we really love them. Folded in half and secured with a shawl pin, it's a cozy wrap; opened to its full glory of textured stitchwork, it's a yummy baby blanket or lap-warmer. You'll want to choose a light color like Marilyn's choice, Naturally in Country to appreciate fully your final creation.
