When we first saw this gorgeous Yoked

Cardigan, we knew all our fans of Simply Soft® Paints would love it, too. Young, fun and very sophisticated, the easy-to-wear silhouette works well with any outfit. We really like how the designer set off the self-patterning Paints with a solid color of Simply Soft® in the placket and cuffs. Very chic.

To celebrate the official arrival of fall, we are bringing you a very special pattern this week. Tammy Hildebrand, a crochet master of the flattering fit, has outdone herself in the Greenport Dolman Jacket. Stitched in three complimentary shades of merino-blend Country, this jacket offers a wealth of designer details that all work together beautifully. The wide, shawl-like dolman sleeves, the dramatic one-button closure, the ruffled edges, and the expert use of color make this jacket a stunner.

So many people tell us how much they love our soft, bamboo-blend Spa yarn for baby projects. Treva McCain's Sonoma Baby Blanket is no exception. Crocheted in just 4 colors of Spa arranged in alternating horizontal and vertical striped squares, this blanket has everything that's just right for baby: it's machine washable and dryable, it's lightweight, the colors are yummy and most of all, it's so soft against Baby's skin. Use Treva's color selection, or play with the complimentary Spa palette yourself and create your own color combinations. Have fun!
