New Yarn Study

The Craft Yarn Council of America needs you!

By participating in the 2009 CYCA research study, you have an exciting opportunity to contribute to the yarn industry and its future.

This important project seeks to gather input from tens of thousands of crocheters and knitters across the country, so make your voice heard now!

If you'll be near Hartford, CT on October 23 and 24, drop by Stitches East and stop in the Share and Care Cafe sponsored by CYCA. Learn more here.

New Free Pattern

Nothing is more satisfying than celebrating the turn of the seasons with a great big new project.

Go ahead and satisfy this seasonal urge with our Hexagonal Throw, crocheted in planet friendly Simply Soft® Eco. (Or if you prefer, you can substitute any of your favorite Simply Soft® colors.) This easy pattern will help you practice the versatile hexagonal motif with truly gorgeous results.

Everywhere we look this fashion season, we're seeing knitted jackets. From the runway to ready-to-wear, the knitted jacket seems to have come into its own. So take this opportunity to step into the fashion limelight with our Arusha Jacket. Cable detailing, rich textural stitching and a popular "bracelet sleeve" length make this jacket a stylish standout. And the merino wool in Country yarn gives the jacket just the right weight to warm up these crisp fall days.

We've had countless compliments on Spa's sophisticated color palette. It seems many fans particularly like to use this bamboo-blend yarn for baby projects, because it offers an updated range of colors beyond the traditional pink and blue. The Spice Island baby blanket is a wonderful example of how Spa's color palette works so well together. Three complimentary colors combined in an easy and cuddly honeycomb stitch will please the most fashion-conscious (mom and) baby.
