Chunky is Beautiful

The chunky look in yarn is back and it's beautiful. You can achieve the effect of chunky yarn and create your own unique fabric, simply by holding two or three strands of yarns together. Take a peek at our Chunky Jacket and get inspired.

Rainbow of Fun

Did we mention we like color? For this happy caterpillar, the brighter the better. Using a rainbow of Wintuk®, you can create a cuddly little friend for the little one in your life.

When a major crafting magazine asked us to adapt a the gorgeous wrap pattern (at left) as a colorful throw, we instantly agreed. Through the design skills of Betty Monroe, the sumptuous Basil Throw is the result. Her easy striping and basic entrelac edge are just challenging enough to keep you stitching.

Drape this paintbox full of color in your living space all winter long to keep the blues away. And, because it's knit with Country yarn, the merino wool blend will keep the chill away, too.

It's possible that our hearts skipped a beat when we opened the box in our office and found Kristen Omdahl's Green Valley Leaf Stitch Scarf nestled inside. If you take close look at this beautiful pattern, you'll discover an "organic" design in which one leaf motif grows out of another, for a gorgeous trellis effect. Finished with a graceful picot edge, the Green Valley Scarf has wonderful body and softness. Of course it does, it's made with Spa!
