Me & My Shadow Hoodie

One of the most exciting things about Simply Soft Shadows—besides its wonderful softness and luster—is how the slow color changes work with your stitches to create a unique palette every time. In Marilyn Losee's Me & My Shadow Baby Hoodie, she has created a knitted yoke and an adorable trimmed hem that make Shadow's color changes pop!

What's on your Needles/Hooks?

We have been enjoying all the wonderful stories on our (almost) new Facebook page. If you haven't dropped by yet, we think you'll be pleasantly surprised. It's a place to share your love of yarn with over 10,000 fans. Joining Facebook is free, and lots of fun. Drop by soon and tell everyone what's on your needles/hooks right now. Post a picture, too.

Everything about Kim Guzman's Andante Throw whispers "soft and subtle"; from the six quiet motifs stitched together to create a beguiling overall pattern, to the soft feel of bamboo-blend Spa yarn, to the gentle shade of one our most popular colors, Ocean Spray. After you've finished crocheting this throw, you may have just one more adjective to offer: satisfying. When you make it and when you wrap yourself or someone you love in it, the Andante Throw will bring you immense satisfaction for years to come.

We love what's happening with hats these days. From traditional berets to soft cloches to the skiers' tobogan, wonderfully inventive patterns for hats are popping up everywhere. Take Darlene Dale's Malabo Hat, for example. Its voluptuous seed stitch brim is so much fun. Double it up to frame the face, or flip it once and wear it long in the back. Don't miss how Cari has styled this versatile hat on our lovely model Trese-San in this week's fashion show.
