This week my daughter, Clover (below) discovered some of my yarn stash. I think it's made clear by this picture of her rummaging through it, that Simply Soft is fun for all ages! She's a girl after my own heart, that one.

If you didn't happen to catch me on Blog Talk Radio's show, Getting Loopy, you can still listen to the interview. Download it today and get the scoop on how to enter to win a grab bag of Caron yarn and a copy of my book, Pop Goes Crochet! Stitch.Rock.Love, Designer Reneé Barnes has created a fabulous Spider Stitch Wrap that is guaranteed to generate loads of compliments. Crocheted in super-drapey Simply Soft, this generous wrap takes "lacy" to a whole new level.

For the knitters among us, Margret Willson has created the lacy l-o-n-g Sophia Cardigan in Simply Soft Eco, but you can choose any worsted-weight Simply Soft yarn you like for this gorgeous fall wardrobe essential. The lace pattern is created with a simple horseshoe stitch changing to a broken rib stitch on the yoke and sleeves. We know you'll reach for this cardigan day after fall day.

Interesting texture seems to be a running theme for this week's newsletter and Kim Guzman's Bargello Throw is no exception. Crocheted with just 3 colors of Simply Soft Collection, this throw creates a stunning geometric repeating pattern in 6 separate panels. Generous in size and weight, the Bargello Throw will be an instant fall favorite.
