Wonder what 's the best way to seam-up amigurumi pieces? I'll show you my preferred method in this video, using the Bitty Bunny as an example. Hope it's helpful to you!

Fuzzy Kitty

Knit up a purrrrr-fectly lovely kitty with KJ Hay's super-cuddly Fuzzy Kitty, stitched in super-soft Dazzleaire. As a bonus, KJ has designed this melt-your-heart kitty in two ways, striped or plain, so that you can stitch up a snuggly toy that looks just like your favorite feline. Be careful, though, you might find yourself creating a whole houseful of soft 'n sweet kitties.

Girl's Smocked Tunic

For those of you who love to both knit and crochet, Kimberly K. McAlindin's Girl's Smocked Tunic is a true delight. The faux smocked bodice, bell sleeves and ruffled hem make a lovely hip-girl garment, but the tunic can also be a great canvas for a scattering fun and fanciful crocheted flowers.

Tunisian Wrap

If you haven't tried Tunisian crochet yet, you might want to pick up a Tunisian crochet hook and get started with this fabulous Tunisian Wrap from Marty Miller. If you're unfamiliar with Tunisian crochet, it involves picking up stitches across a row on a long hook that's similar in appearance to a long knitting needle. The resulting stitches can emulate woven, knitted, lace or numerous other stitches. Marty chose a lovely shade of Simply Soft Collection and a complimenting colorway of Simply Soft Paints to create a tapestry of color that is truly gorgeous.
